**Please note that internal (or domestic) Russian passports are not acceptable as proof of identity

***Guernsey only: For identification documents containing a photo, the certification statement must also include confirmation that the photo is a ‘true likeness’ of the individual. The location of where the document was certified must be included. Copies of previously certified documents which have been recertified (copies of copies) cannot be relied upon unless verification has taken place to confirm that the current certifier has seen the original documentation or has met with the individual
